3Nights/4 Days

Overview Delhi Agra

Delhi symbolises the country's past and its thriving present with incredible art and crafts, diverse cuisine and culture. Now a thriving, cosmopolitan metro, the city has much to showcase an ancient culture and a rapidly modernising country. Dotted with carefully-preserved monuments, ancient forts and tombs, Delhi has much to explore! But as a rapidly modernising country, it owns modern city features such as a metro system, fabulous eating places, and bustling markets. Even today, one can have a fascinating glimpse into the past in Old Delhi, with its labyrinth of narrow lanes, old havelis, and colourful bazaars.
 It is home to three World Heritage monuments—Qutub Minar, Red Fort and Humayun's Tomb that have survived many centuries and give an idea of architectural wonders created by emperors in the past. Central Delhi's tree-lined avenues- Rashtrapati Bhavan, Parliament House and India Gate-- reflect Delhi's colonial past. Visit museums that glimpse the country's fascinating history.
 Apart from this, modern Delhi has a lot more to offer! Delhi has a modern, well-planned and extensive Metro network that connects all corners of Delhi; this network is still growing. New roadways and flyovers have improved connectivity. It made the Delhi tour more accessible!
 Enjoy your holidays!
